

Hot Topics in Employment Law

18 October, 17:00 – 17:45

at Springfield Hotel, Holywell, CH8 8BA

This seminar is free of charge

Speaker: Paul Edwards

The Seminar will provide Employers, Directors and Human Resource professionals with easy to follow guidance on recent changes in Employment Legislation and Good Practice.

The Seminar will focus on new and recent Employment Legislation and should address the ongoing shifting sands which are created by Case Law. The Seminar will have particular focus on how to manage stress and depression in the work place and avoid the potential for costly employment tribunal claims, the Bribery Act 2010 focusing on compliance and the Equality Act 2010 one year on.

About DTM Legal - Commercial Law Specialists : DTM LEGAL LLP is an award winning law firm set up with the express intention of offering clients a complete commercial service. Headquartered in Chester, DTM services clients right across the North West, North Wales and beyond and also has a Merseyside regional office in St. Helens.

Speaker Bio :

Paul Edwards is an Associate Solicitor with DTM Legal who specialises in all areas of Employment Law from Recruitment to Tribunal and Court proceedings. Paul began his Employment Law career advising Trade Unions and their Members as to Employment Rights of their members. After this initial introduction to Employment Law Paul began advising Employers which has benefited significantly from his initial experience in advising Trade Union's. Paul's clients are mainly SME's including those operating nationally and internationally and Paul regularly provides day to day Employment Law support to Employers, Directors and HR professionals with a focus on dispute avoidance and problem solving concentrating on achieving the desired result for the client. Paul often advises at Board level. Paul has also advised on Employment related immigration issues and Health and Safety Executive prosecutions.

To book your place

Email: businessweek@flintshire.gov.uk

Call: 01352 703219

Or book online here!